Elvira Eurlings, currently Agent at the Dutch State Treasury Agency, joins ILX Management as Chief Investment Officer (CIO)

19 January, AMSTERDAM –Elvira Eurlings, currently Agent at the Dutch State Treasury Agency (DSTA), will join the recently established ILX Management B.V. (ILX) to lead the ILX investment and sustainability team. During her time at the Agency, she pioneered the Green Bond issuance on behalf of the State of the Netherlands and successfully oversaw the increased Dutch government borrowing requirement as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. Previously, Elvira had a successful career in development finance at FMO, the Netherlands Development Finance Company and the IMF in Washington. She will join the Management Board of ILX as CIO alongside CEO Manfred Schepers and CRO/COO Tanja Pelle and will take on her new position on March 1st this year.

'We are delighted that Elvira will be joining the new ILX team as CIO, after a successful four year tenor as Agent at the DSTA of the Ministry of Finance', says Nanno Kleiterp, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of ILX, 'She brings with her extensive experience and network in sustainable and development finance across the Emerging Markets.'

ILX provides pension funds and other institutional investors access to large scale private credit investment opportunities in the global development finance asset class, directly targeting sustainable development and climate finance projects across the global emerging markets. Recently, the Netherlands' largest pension provider APG committed to investing USD 750 in the ILX Fund I as the cornerstone investor.
